

It's showtime

Victoria Conference Centre general manager Jocelyn Jenkins checks the place settings before guests from the International Congress and Convention Association arrive for lunch Monday at the newly expanded conference centre facilities inside the former Crystal Garden. Staff tried to ensure things were just so for the international group of 750 conference planners.

Sharon Tiffin/News staff

